

Gary Richard Herbert
Governor
Declaration

Whereas, Utah's diverse historic and contemporary buildings, monuments, fountains, public sculptures and art, parkways, and plazas reflect the history, cultural heritage, accomplishments, and ambitions of our people;

Whereas, the Utah Center for Architecture and other organizations educate the public about the power of the built environment to shape our lives, communities, and culture, and encourage Utahns to gain a greater understanding and appreciation of the value of design excellence in our built environment;

Whereas, architects, landscape architects, urban designers, urban planners, preservation specialists, and artists enhance the quality of life for all significantly by creating better designed environments in our state; and

Whereas, we believe that an architecturally-rich built environment is important because the quality of the buildings and places where we live and work affects our health, safety, prosperity, and cultural enrichment;

Now, therefore, I, Gary R. Herbert, Governor of the State of Utah, do hereby declare April 27 - May 3, 2014, as

Architecture Week in Utah
